Smalley now providing local customer service & inventory

20 Jun 2017
Coignières, France

For over 50 years, Smalley has been recognized globally for delivering not only the highest quality wave springs and retaining rings, but for providing best-in-class customer service, engineering support and deliverability. Today, Smalley is pleased to announce that we are bringing that same level of service and support to the European community with the opening of our full service operations in Coignières, France.

With the expansion of our European service, we are now able to process and fulfill orders, shipping locally stocked products. This service expansion allows European manufacturers to be accommodated without the delays associated with global business.

Smalley Europe now provides:

- ✓ Customer Service:
 - Local order processing (8:00-12:30 / 13:30-18:00)
- ✓ Warehouse Operations:
 - Thousands of standards ready to ship in carbon & stainless steel
 - Free samples stocked locally
 - Warehouse certified to: ISO 9001, ISO/TS16949 and ISO 14001
- ✓ Engineering & Sales:
 - Engineers ready to provide application consultation
 - Custom design capabilities

Smalley continues to expand our global footprint to ensure we are providing the fastest, and highest level of service to our customers. With our global offices, warehouses and distribution network, Smalley is able to provide localized support anywhere it is needed.
